Book Requirements

All books must be at least 100 pages in length and at an appropriate reading level for the student. Comic books, magazines, newspapers, textbooks, etc. are not acceptable.

Students are required to read a book from the genre listed below. In addition, students may read any book(s) from any other genre to add pages to their page total for a higher grade.

Required Reading:

Examples:

Genre: nonfiction	These stories are always true. For this assignment, the book should be about a topic that is not a biography or autobiography.
examples	The Sun by Seymour Simon; The Secret Life of Plants by Peter Tompkins; The Automobile Age by James J. Flink; America's Great Disasters by Martin W. Sandler

For more information on genres, see the teacher or school librarian for help.

A parent signature must accompany each book to verify that the parent has seen their child reading at some point. Without a signature, the book will not be counted toward the page total of the grade. Failure to complete the required reading book will result in a grade penalty.
